What Is ICANN?

ICANN Org's Mission

The mission of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) is to ensure the stable and secure operation of the Internet's unique identifier systems

Specifically, ICANN:

-  1 Coordinates the allocation and assignment of names in the root zone of the Domain Name System
-  2 Coordinates the development and implementation of policies concerning the registration of second-level domain names in generic top-level domains (gTLDs)
-  3 Facilitates the coordination of the operation and evolution of the DNS root name server system
-  4 Coordinates the allocation and assignment at the top-most level of Internet Protocol numbers and Autonomous System numbers
-  5 Collaborates with other bodies as appropriate to provide registries needed for the functioning of the Internet as specified by Internet protocol standards development organizations

Engage at ICANN

Issues discussed at ICANN affect your business

ICANN's work ranges relates to a broad range of Internet challenges, including policies on generic names that affect your network configuration and your brand or business practices online. Let your voice be heard on the issues that affect your business.

ICANN is open to everyone

You can tailor your participation to your needs. Remote participation is available in several languages at all ICANN's Public Meetings. Issues open for Public Comment are listed on our website for all stakeholders to provide input.

Take advantage of our multistakeholder model

Not only is ICANN open to everyone, everyone participates on equal footing. This makes it a unique place to interact with and learn from representatives from different sectors such as academia and government.
